MEETING OF INSURANCE MEN

Inspection of Fire Risks in City. Knights of Columbus Visit Richmond.

> Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbrook Street. (Telephone 1485) Petersburg, Va., October 24.

The Rev. George C. Zeigler, pastor of the Christian Church of this city. who went to Washington yesterday to make some inquiry as to Professo Carlo Mora, late organist of the High Street Methodist Church, whose al leged mysterious death in a hospital has been reported, returned this morn ing. He was not able to find any trace concerning the reported fatal accident to Professor Mora, nor was he able to learn anything of "Dr. Paula Mora," supposed to be the brother of the missing man, from whom the telegram announcing his death was received. Certain facts concern-Ford, Rockingham County. Rev. J. mystery. It is now generally believed that Professor Mora still is living.

Meeting of Insurance Men.

The meeting last night in A tended, not only by insurance men, bu property owners and city About forty representatives from out-side the city of insurance companies doing business in Petersburg, were in the city during the day and at the meeting at night. The principa speakers were President J. M. Walle speakers were President J. M. Waller and Secretary A. H. Harris, of the association. Mr. Harris spoke of the great losses by fire annually in this country, many of which could have been prevented by proper precautions. He spoke of the movement to conserve property, and in this line suggested as a preventive measure the cleaning out by property owners of waste and rubbish in cellars, attics and alleys, correcting flues and en-forcing building laws.

President Waller referred to the fact

President Waller reterred to the last that 650 places, fire risks in Peters-burg, were inspected yesterday, and he described conditions as they were found. Defects of various sorts had been discovered, which should be remedied.

Captain N. T. Patteson, chairman of the Finance Committe, spoke of the appropriations made by the Council for enlarging the force and increasing the efficiency of the Fire Department, as a means of greater protection to property. In this respect Secretary property. In this respect Secretary Harris suggested that it might be weil for the city, while providing greater means for fighting fire, to provide also better machinery for preventing them. Councilman W. R. McKenney, Alderman P. S. Pugh, Fire Chief Farley and others also spoke briefly. One of the outcomes of the meeting will be the ensetment of a proper building code and the appointment of a building inspector.

Quiet Weddings.

Last evening at 5:30 olclock at the residence of the bride's fister, Mrs. J. W. Wells, on Wythe Street, Miss Myrtle May Garrett, daughter of W. H. Garrett, was married to Ernest Cleveland Beasley, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Public, Only immediate relatives F. G. Ribble. Only immediate relatives F. G. Ribble. Only immediate relatives were present. Mr and Mrs. Beasley left for the North on their bridal trip. At noon to-day at the residence of the officiating minister, the Rev. George E. Booker, D. D., Miss Lelia R. Parsons and J. Robert Hansbury, both of Norfolk, were united in marriage. The bride was accompanied by her an artificial arm.

A large class of candidates was initiated into the mysteries of the Third Rank of Knights of Pythians at the meeting of Naomi Lodge to-night. Several Pythian brothers from Richmond were present.

At 9 o'clock last night, at the parsonage of the Second Baptist Church, George Henry Myers and Mrs. Helen Estelle Gibbs were married by the Rev. F. W. Moore.

A large delegation of Petersburg Welster of Columbus visited Richmond

Council to-night to assist in confer-ring the second degree of the order. The Rev. Charles W. Collier, former-ly of this city, now pastor of the Baptist Church in Bedford City, is reported as ill at his home there. He is the brother of James A. and Ed-ward Collier, of Petersburg.
